APPENDIX – 3 Profit Distribution Policy

In line with the Company's long-term strategies, investments and financing plans and profitability, the amount of dividend, which determined by the Board of Directors and submitted for the approval of the General Assembly, computed in accordance with the CMB communiqués and regulations, can be distributed in cash or in the form of bonus shares of stock, or some combination of the two, or retain in the Company.

If General Assembly approves dividend distribution; due dates for distribution will be either decided individually by the General Assembly or General Assembly may authorize Boards of Directors. In any case, distribution should start the latest by the end of the fiscal year, in which the General Assembly approves the dividend distribution. Additionally, distribution is complied with all other requirements stated in Capital Market Law and CMB communiqués.

There are no preferred stocks and any individual to take part in the profits other than shareholders in the Company.

This is the Company's policy for the next three years. Any change in this policy will be publicly disclosed.”

APPENDIX – 4 Remuneration Policy

Migros' remuneration policy defines the remuneration system and procedure applicable to the Board Members and senior executives of the Company within the scope of those who have administrative responsibility under the Capital Markets Board ("CMB") regulations. The rules set forth in capital markets legislation must be complied with in regard to the remuneration of senior executives and board members.

1. Members of the Board of Directors

Remuneration for the Board of Directors is determined by the shareholders during the General Assembly Meeting by taking into consideration the provisions of the Articles of Association of the Company. Pursuant to the resolution passed during the Ordinary General Assembly Meeting for 2014, Independent Board Members were paid a gross salary of TL 20,000 for every meeting at which they were present, while the other board members were not paid a monthly salary. Stock options or payment plans based on the performance of the Company shall not be used while determining the salaries of the independent board members.

If a Board Member is also employed as a senior executive in the Company at the same time, it is possible for such person to be paid a fixed salary and bonus payments in accordance with the remuneration policies for senior management.

2. Senior Management

Remuneration for senior management is composed of two components consisting of a fixed salary and a performance based bonus.

The fixed salaries for senior management shall be determined in compliance with international standards and legal obligations while taking into consideration factors such as the macroeconomic data in the market, salary policies applicable in the market, the size of the company and its long-term goals as well as the position of the relevant person.

The bonuses for senior management are calculated based on a bonus base, company performance and individual performance. Information on the criteria is summarized below:

- Bonus Base: bonus bases are updated annually and vary depending on the size of the job required from the managerial position. The senior management bonus policies in the market will be taken into consideration in updating the bonus bases.
- Company Performance: Company performance is calculated at the end of the year by measuring the financial (company's consolidated turnover, company's consolidated EBITDA, company's consolidated net cash, etc) goals, which were set for the Company at the beginning of each year. The company's targets shall be determined in line with the annual budget.
- Individual Performance: Balanced scorecard methodology is used to define individual performance. Executive Management individual scorecards take into consideration various goals set in terms of Financial, Operational, Technological Innovation, Customer, and Employee related aspects.

In accordance with legislation, at the end of the year, shareholders are informed of the total amount of remuneration, which was determined according to above principles and paid to senior executives. The amounts pertaining thereto are included in the footnotes for the financial statements concerning the annual financial results of the relevant year.

APPENDIX – 5 Disclosure Policy

Information shall be disclosed to the public correctly and in due time by taking into consideration those matters that fall under the scope of the Capital Markets Board's Communiqué of Material Events (II-15.1). In addition, any material information that could affect the decisions of shareholders and other stakeholders shall also be disclosed to the public. The following means of communication are used in order to disclose this material information to the public according to the qualifications of the information:

- Material event disclosures sent to the Public Disclosure Platform ("KAP")
