INTRODUCTION: AN ECONOMIC REVIEW AND RETAIL MARKET

Gross Domestic Product (GDP) did grow by 11,0% in the first quarter of 2011 in real terms. GDP growth increased to two digit figures again since the second quarter of 2010. Wholesale and Retail Trade, one of the important indicators of domestic consumption, increased 17.2 % in real terms in the first three months of the year. Food, beverage and tobacco spend, which started its recovery since the beginning of 2010, did grow by 8.6% in real terms in the first quarter of the year. Consumer confidence index, reaching 96.42 by the end of June 2011, retreated to 94.83 in July, 1.64% drop month-to-month. On the other hand, current account deficit is a major concern for the policy makers. Turkish Lira lost value significantly since the beginning of the year. The input prices and petrol increased further with the exchange rate impact.

Consumer Price Index (CPI), on a declining trend up until April because of the favorable base effect, has been gradually increasing since then. July 2011 CPI is 6.31% versus the same month last year.

According to the Trade Council of Shopping Centers and Retailers (TCSCR), the sales revenue of organized retail increased by 5% in the last 12 months. During the same period, grocery retail sales revenues increase is 1% versus 12% non-food retail by the end of June 2011. Grocery Retail increased its selling space by 10% by June 2011 annually, versus 23% increase in non-food retail business.
